

Greyfriars Kirk - Weekly Notes and News

GREYFRIARS
an inspiring community

Services and recordings are available on the Kirk's website: <https://greyfriarskirk.com/worship-community/> and via the Kirk's Facebook and Twitter pages.

Sunday, 19 April - 11am service

This week's service will be published once again using the Greyfriars Kirk website "Community & Worship" page, and on the Kirk's Facebook page. The service will be available at 11am, please join in to enjoy worship at the usual service time if you can. However, it will remain available afterwards for those unable to join at 11am too.

AGM

After our usual service time, members and regular attenders are invited to join the annual stated meeting of the congregation, at which the annual accounts for 2019 will be proposed for adoption. These have been circulated by email, by the Session Clerk. If you have not received a copy but think you should, please contact Jo Elliot on sessionclerk@greyfriarskirk.com.

Refugio - Sunday 19 April, 7pm

This week we will also share a Refugio service, led by probationer minister Urzula Glienecke. This will include communion, so please have bread and wine (or appropriate items for you) ready for when you join the service at 7pm. Again, this will remain available afterwards for those unable to join at that time.

Travels With A Stick - Audio Recordings from Richard Frazer

Starting this Monday, Greyfriars Kirk will be posted daily instalments of Richard reading his recent book, on his pilgrimage adventures to Santiago de Compostela, for everyone to enjoy. These will be available through our Facebook and Twitter accounts. We will also be creating a library for these and other recordings, for everyone to browse and enjoy. This will be available through the Worship & Community page on the Kirk's website.

Life & Work - online edition available

In response to the current pandemic, Life and Work is offering its current edition online. Here is the link to access that: www.lifeandwork.org/resources/free-download-may-2020.

Highlights from this issue include:

- FEEDING THE HUNGRY: Reflection on foodbanks and impact of Covid-19
